C'est Magnifique! Students Inducted into Foreign Language Honor Society

Bravo to 29 North Shore High School students who were recently inducted into the Foreign Language Honor Society. Six French, eight Italian, seven Spanish and eight Latin students took their pledges and were sworn in after sharing their personal feelings about learning to speak and read a foreign language with the audience.

Congratulations to French students Kathryn Kane, Alex Talamo, Michelle Wong Anna Fagin, Jessica Pickering, and Andrea Pardo; Italian students Shannon Dawson, Elizabeth Sabbatini, Nicole Guarino, Alexa Algios, Emily Ferrara, Max Sorett, Alana DeStefano, and Gabriella Palmieri; Latin students C.J. Osman, Lauren Pearsal, Anna Klestov, Alex Talamo, Keith Lopez, Robert Grabher, Alex Wilson, Alexander Appel and Paul Wefer; and Spanish students Lindsay Padover, Arielle Crane, Max Sorett, Naveetha Nandakumar, Megan Shea, and Natalie Ricondo. These students achieved a 90% average or higher in their four years of Foreign Language study at the high school level and an overall academic average of 87% or higher.

Special thanks go out to Dr. Ellen Shields, Mr. Christopher Whalley and teachers in the LOTE department of North Shore High School for a very memorable Foreign Language Honor Society Induction Ceremony for all those in attendance including proud family, friends, and faculty members.
