

The annual gift giving for the holidays from the AIDS Peer Educators. The gifts are donated to children of parents who have the AIDS Virus and these parents are incarcerated so their children do not really have a chance for a celebration and a true holiday.

To Note: The Builders Club also donated gifts and you have the picture I sent to you and the article.

