

North Shore High School Lends A Helping Hand

The North Shore High School is busy with many activities for this holiday season. Pictured are students with faculty and staff who donated gifts to families in need for the 2009 holiday. This has been an annual event for many years where Commons Classes, our homeroom classes, get together and join hands to buy gifts for needy community families. HO HO HO..... North Shore Santas at work!

